Dear Mr Kostuch

Re: Food Handler Training and Certification Equivalency for Advanced.fst.

Congratulations on having your program accredited with Toronto Public Health.

Your application was reviewed and accepted as meeting the accreditation requirements as stated in City of Toronto By-law 678-2006.

Toronto Public Health is pleased to be working in partnership with you. Together our programs will deliver food safety training and certification and will enhance safe food handling practices in food establishments in our community.

Your accreditation for delivering the food handler training and certification program is valid for 5 years.

Yours truly,
