- b. TrainCan BASICS.fst Course Examination and Certificate. Certificates must make reference to BASICS.fst 4th Edition.

In addition to the above, the following conditions apply to both versions:

1. The Course Provider agrees to comply with the terms and conditions set out in the Alberta Food Sanitation and Hygiene Training Course Recognition Application and Information Package, dated October 2011 (the "Application Package").
2. If the Course Provider proposes any changes to course materials or content, course delivery or instructor qualifications; the Course Provider shall submit the proposed changes to Alberta Health for review and approval prior to implementation.
3. Alberta Health reserves the right to modify the terms and conditions for recognition under section 31 of the Food Regulation. The Course Provider shall update its course materials accordingly and shall ensure that instructors understand and apply any changes.
4. The Course Provider agrees to allow a representative of Alberta Health to monitor its course offerings, monitor training, review course materials, review the qualifications of course instructors, and access any other information from the Course Provider that Alberta Health reasonably requires to assess a course.

Recognition of a course may be revoked at any time if the terms and conditions of this letter and the Application Package are not followed.

It is the responsibility of the Course Provider to obtain requisite approvals for the use of any materials that are subject to copyright and trade mark laws.

Should you have any questions, concerns or require additional information; please contact Ms. Sharon L. Regimbald, Environmental Public Health Advisor with the Health Protection Branch. Sharon can be reached by e-mail at Sharon.L.Regimbald@gov.ab.ca or by phone at 780-641-9587.

Sincerely yours,
